

Are you passionate about education?

Do you love meaningful pictures?

Share your story and participate in the 2015 ESFI photo contest!

Etudes Sans Frontières International (ESFI) is organizing a photo contest on the topic:

How education changed me

Send your picture and a short description (max. 500 words) of why you think this picture describes best how education changed you to clara.brune@esf-international.org by November 20th 2015! The committee will select the top 10 pictures and share them on our facebook page. The three pictures with the most likes will win a prize!

1st place 100€

2nd place 50€

3rd place 25€

Conditions: Participants must be over 18 years old and submit their own work. Every participant can only submit one picture of their own making. Participants must like ESFI's facebook page to stay informed about results of the competition.